

Oregon

Andrew R. Stolfi
DCBS
Director/Insurance
Commissioner
Vice Chair, Western Zone

Term of Office:

Indefinite

Appointed: February 1,
2018

Reappointed: April 7,
2020

Andrew R. Stolfi was appointed Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) director in April 2020. He is also the state's insurance commissioner. He began with the department in February 2018 as Division of Financial Regulation administrator and insurance commissioner.

Previously, Stolfi spent six years in Switzerland at the International Association of Insurance Supervisors, most recently serving as chief operating officer and chief counsel. He was responsible for leading the operations, legal, communications, finance, risk management, and human resources functions. He was also a key advisor to the association's Executive Committee and served as its first communications officer.

Before joining the association, Stolfi served in various senior management roles at the Illinois Department of Insurance, including acting director, chief of staff, and special counsel for policy and legislative affairs. In Illinois, he developed and managed all aspects of the department's legislative agenda and day-to-day operations.

Stolfi is an active participant at the NAIC, where he currently serves as vice chair of the Western Zone and a member of the Executive (EX) Committee. He also serves as chair of the NAIC/Consumer Liaison Committee, co-vice chair of the Climate and Resiliency (EX) Task Force, and vice chair of the Consumer Participation Board of Trustees.

His legal background includes serving as attorney and policy analyst in the Office of the Governor of the State of Illinois, as judicial law clerk for the Honorable Thomas E. Hoffman in the Illinois Appellate Court, First District, and as a special assistant corporation counsel for the City of Chicago Law Department.

Stolfi received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Vermont and a law degree with honors from Chicago-Kent College of Law. He resides in Salem with his wife and two children.
