Jon Pike
Commissioner
NAIC Vice President
Western Zone

Term of Office:
At the Pleasure of the Governor; Confirmed by the Senate
Appointed: January 5, 2021
Confirmed: February 4, 2021

Jon Pike was named Commissioner of the Utah Insurance Department by Governor Spencer J. Cox and began serving on January 5, 2021.

Pike was raised in Salt Lake City and worked in several positions with Intermountain Healthcare since 1990. Prior to his appointment as Commissioner, he worked as the southwest Utah operations director for SelectHealth, the health insurance division of Intermountain Healthcare. Pike’s career has focused on physician relations and contracting, broker relations, sales management, and government and community liaison.

He serves as chair of the NAIC's Market Regulation and Consumer Affairs (D) Committee and as a vice chair of the NAIC's Health Insurance and Managed Care (B) Committee. He was a member of the National Association of Healthcare Underwriters and the Utah Association of Healthcare Underwriters for many years prior to becoming Commissioner.

In 2007, Pike was elected to the St. George City Council and in 2013 he was elected mayor of St. George. He currently serves in his community as vice chair of the Southern Utah Performing Arts Center Foundation board and as a board member of the Southwest Symphony and Encircle Utah (St. George). He previously served on the boards of Utah Tech University, Dixie Technology College, the Washington County Water Conservancy District, and as the president of the Utah League of Cities and Towns.

Pike earned a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Utah and an MBA from Westminster College. Pike loves singing, playing the piano, organ, and guitar, as well as water and snow skiing, motorcycling and walking or biking on St. George's many trails. He and his wife Kristy have five children and six grandchildren (with twins on the way!).
