

PROPERTY HOMEOWNERS CROSS FIELD VALIDATIONS

Validation Name	Description	Error Message
1. Written Premium and Policies in Force	If written premium reported then you should also report policies in force.	If written premium reported then you should also report policies in force.
1a. Policies in Force and Written Premium	If policies in force reported then you should also report written premium.	If policies in force reported then you should also report written premium.
2. Count of Paid Claims and Losses Paid	If count of paid claims is reported then losses paid should be reported.	If count of paid claims is reported then losses paid should be reported.
2a. Losses Paid and Count of Paid Claims	If losses paid is reported then count of paid claims should be reported.	If losses paid is reported then count of paid claims should be reported.
3. Count of Policies with Earthquake Coverage and Aggregate Premium for Earthquake Coverage	If count of policies with earthquake coverage is reported then premium for earthquake should be reported.	If count of policies with earthquake coverage is reported then premium for earthquake should be reported.
3a. Aggregate Premium for Earthquake Coverage and Count of Policies with Earthquake Coverage	If premium for earthquake is reported then count of policies with earthquake coverage should be reported.	If premium for earthquake is reported then count of policies with earthquake coverage should be reported.
4. Count of policies with wind endorsements and premium for wind endorsements.	If count of policies with wind endorsements reported then premium for wind endorsements should be reported.	If count of policies with wind endorsements reported then premium for wind endorsements should be reported.
4a. Premium for wind endorsements and Count of policies with wind endorsements.	If premium for wind endorsements is reported then count of policies with wind endorsements should be reported.	If premium for wind endorsements is reported then count of policies with wind endorsements should be reported.
5. Count of Policies with Programmatic Mitigation Discounts and Premium for Policies with Programmatic Mitigation Discounts	If count of policies with programmatic discounts is reported then premium for policies with programmatic discounts should be reported.	If count of policies with programmatic discounts is reported then premium for policies with programmatic discounts should be reported.
6. Count of Standalone Wind Policies and Premium of Standalone Wind Policies	If count of standalone wind policies reported then premium for standalone wind policies should be reported.	If count of standalone wind policies reported then premium for standalone wind policies should be reported.
6a. Premium of Standalone Wind Policies and Count of Standalone Wind Policies	If premium for standalone wind policies is reported then count of standalone wind policies should be.	If premium for standalone wind policies is reported then count of standalone wind policies should be.
7. Count of Policies with non-Programmatic Mitigation Discounts and Premium for Policies with non-Programmatic Mitigation Discounts	If count of policies with non-programmatic mitigation discounts is reported then premium for policies with non-programmatic mitigation discounts should be reported.	If count of policies with non-programmatic mitigation discounts is reported then premium for policies with non-programmatic mitigation discounts should be reported.
8. Written House Months Wind and Non-Wind	Written house months should equal written house months for policies with and without wind coverage.	Written house months should equal written house months for policies with and without wind coverage.
9a. Minimum deductible for fixed should be less than maximum deductible for fixed.	Minimum deductible for fixed should be less than maximum deductible for fixed.	Minimum deductible for fixed should be less than maximum deductible for fixed.
9b. Minimum deductible for percent deductible should be less than maximum deductible for percent deductible.	Minimum deductible for percent deductible should be less than maximum deductible for percent deductible.	Minimum deductible for percent deductible should be less than maximum deductible for percent deductible.